Kansas Administrative Regulation 92-19-30 states in part:

“Burden is on transferee to prove exemption, affidavit required. The transferee claiming an exemption must file an affidavit with the director of revenue or the county treasurer stating the name, address, and telephone number of the transferer; the name, address, and telephone number of the transferee; the make, year and style of the motor vehicle or trailer; and such other information as the director of revenue may require.

It is also mandatory that the affidavit contain facts in detail sufficient to clearly bring the transferee within the exemption claimed. For example, if he claims the transfer was a gift from a person in the close family relationship as set out above, the transferee must state his relationship to the transferer and also state that no money was given in exchange.

Affidavits of exemption which are not correct in both substance and form cannot be accepted by the director of revenue in lieu of the tax.

In case of doubt, the county treasurer shall collect the tax. It is always the privilege of the taxpayer to file a claim with the director of revenue for refund if he believes the tax has been erroneously collected.

Criminal prosecution for false affidavit. Persons who make false affidavits under this regulation do so at their peril, subject to severe pains and penalties of perjury, and they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. The director of revenue will request the attorney general of the state of Kansas as well as any county attorney to assist in such prosecution.”

This is to certify that I purchased the above described motor vehicle or trailer which is except from the payment of Kansas retailers' sales tax for the reason stated above.

The undersigned understands and agrees that if the Department of Revenue determines the purchase of this vehicle is not exempt from the tax, the purchaser becomes liable for the tax.
